READING

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

Once upon a time, there was a piece of paper. It could do all sorts of things like bend, flex, fold, and even turn into a paper plane. The children loved playing with it! They would draw on it, cut it out, make shapes, and make a boat with it. But one day, the paper found itself old and wrinkled, too used up for the kids to keep playing with. Before it knew what was going on, it found itself stuck at the bottom of the trash can. It was sent out to the dumpster, where some men came and picked it up.

The little piece of paper was thrown into the truck with all the other papers, which were old, wrinkled, and quite grumpy. The journey was bumpy, windy, and too long for such a tired piece of paper. It went from light to wind to rain. It was grabbed at and squished, and finally thrown onto a pile with the rest of the papers. It quickly got sorted and pushed, and moved around. The poor little piece of paper could do very little in its weak state. Then, it was crushed back into a thin piece of paper.

"Hmm, that's not so bad," it thought. Then it saw the slicer! And the crusher! The paper tried to run, but it was too late. The machines sucked it in with the rest of the papers. The paper closed its eyes and blinked. It realized that it was perfectly quiet, and even a bit sunny. Looking around, the paper realised it was sitting next to a batch of fresh paper. It looked down at itself. It was completely clean and smooth with a fresh coat of white. Then, bending over to examine the rest of itself to see what was going on, it noticed a fine watermark on its back.

"What is this?" it wondered.

"A recycled logo!"
